

MEMBERSHIP OR DONATION

WHAT'S THE DIFFERENCE?

The White River Alliance (WRA) offers opportunities to become a member, make a donation, or do both. How does one know whether a membership or donation is best for their situation? Let's take a look at the differences between the two.

MEMBERSHIP

- ◆ Variety of membership options - from individual to large corporation
- ◆ As a member you have voting rights on WRA business & Board of Directors elections
- ◆ Opportunity to be a WRA Board Member (excludes Individual Membership) & other leadership opportunities
- ◆ Discounted registration rates for some events
- ◆ Promotion of your organization's local events to larger audiences
- ◆ Grant sponsorship and project support

DONATIONS

- ◆ Any amount welcome
- ◆ Donation can be directed to a program of your choice or where needed
- ◆ Become a White River Alliance Investor for the Indiana Water Summit, River Assessment Field Teams (RAFT), or Clear Choices Clean Water programs
- ◆ Several donation incentives offered throughout the year
- ◆ Opportunity to be recognized or remain anonymous for your donation

Questions about becoming a member or making a donation? Contact us at info@thewhiteriveralliance.org

